

A UNIQUE PANCAKE DAY EXPERIENCE at

Pancake Day is a beloved annual holiday, and this year, Colonel Saab is introducing a fresh spin to the classic pancake with their exclusive recipe for Uttapam. To celebrate Pancake Day, Colonel Saab has chosen to add this special dish to their menu, along with their popular extra-large dosas which have been a staple at the restaurant and remain a crowd favourite.

From February 15th to 28th, guests can visit Colonel Saab during lunch hours to savour this delicious and authentic South Indian savoury pancake, as well as their well-loved and highly sought-after dosas. Colonel Saab's recipe for Uttapam is made with a batter of fermented rice and lentils, giving it a unique flavour and texture. The pancakes have a crispy golden exterior and a soft, pillowy interior, topped with a variety of seasonal vegetables, spices, and herbs.

The dish is accompanied by a combination of tomato and coconut chutneys, as well as sambhar, making it a complete and satisfying meal. For those with dietary restrictions, Colonel Saab's recipe for Uttapam is naturally gluten-free, vegan-friendly, and protein-packed, making it a great option for everyone. To elevate the experience, Colonel Saab recommends trying it with a Pistachio Lassi, a popular yogurt-based drink that is the perfect accompaniment to a brunch meal.
